

keeping executives safe

Neil Austin and Lawrence Dando, two career surveillance specialists, established Mint Executive in 2015, having worked on and managed some of the most complex Police operations in the UK.

Mint Executive is an independent, bespoke executive risk management consultancy based in London and Dubai. We specialise in the discreet protection of clients travelling abroad, where the environment requires additional expertise. Our aim is to make our clients feel safe, and be safe, as they travel an increasingly dangerous world.

About MINT Executive

Mint Executive operatives are highly skilled in surveillance and covert techniques. They are recruited exclusively from specialist UK Police units and they have had distinguished careers in Major Crime, Intelligence, National Security and Royalty and Diplomatic Protection.

Using our unique knowledge and experience in covert policing, we deliver an exceptional executive and family risk management service.

Our vision is to utilise the outstanding skills of our covert staff to provide invaluable support to the business sector and families travelling in difficult situations. Businesses and families are operating in more complex security environments and the discreet services we provide allow our clients to focus on their work and travel. We manage the stress and anxiety of working in unfamiliar countries or unfriendly environments, facilitating the client itineraries with the maximum of attention and the minimum of fuss.

Executive Risk Management combines the outstanding skills and experience of career Surveillance specialists with up to date dynamic risk assessments to assist with the safety of executives travelling the world.

Who we can assist

- Senior executives travelling globally
- Security teams who may require additional assistance
- Companies travelling globally without sufficient internal resources for the specific trip
- Families travelling into potentially unfriendly countries or situations
- Minor/student/custody travel
- Sport or Celebrity travel
- How we work

All services are bespoke to meet the particular needs of the client. We focus on covert protection and our services are discreet.

We utilise the experiences, gained through our specialist work fighting major crime and terrorism, to ensure the safety of our clients. We have partnerships with a select group of trusted security companies to assist as required.

Day to Day

We run through itineraries and routes with clients. We accompany the clients on their trip, or meet them at their destination.

We provide advanced logistical support including:

- Security advice
- Transfers
- Anti and counter surveillance
- Physical security
- Advanced Police driving
- Room and vehicle sweeps
- Security of documents and bags
- Local knowledge and customs
- Operational support

Risk Assessment

We conduct risk assessments based on intelligence from the location, nationality of client, type and purpose of trip. These assessments are monitored 24/7.

Intelligence/Information

We monitor and collate intelligence globally and ensure that our deployments are fully supported. We keep clients updated on any changes to the intelligence and prioritise their safety.

Security advice

We work closely with Government agencies, local Police and security partners to ensure that we have the most up to date picture of security in the countries we work in. We provide advice to clients looking to travel abroad and we keep them updated on the relevant Government security advice.

Troubleshooting

Using knowledge of countries and our strong liaisons, we can advise on, or manage, complex security issues for clients. This applies where the client is a victim, an accused offender, or any other matter. In addition, we can assist with medical and welfare services.

Seeing the Bigger Picture

How we can assist

One-time requests for a particular incident or personnel situation
Continuous monitoring of a situation for a specified time period
Additional support to internal surveillance resources

Qualifications of Surveillance Team

Our operatives are some of the best trained and experienced in the country and they have received Police awards for their skill and dedication.

Experience of our team includes the following:

- Career surveillance specialists
- Counter-terrorism surveillance
- Diplomatic and Royalty Protection
- Worked with, and provided training for, the Security Services

Surveillance

How we work

We tailor our services to meet the needs of the client and we can undertake any surveillance request. The main elements of our surveillance function include the following:

- Covert monitoring of individuals
- Corporate espionage
- Individual behaviours
- Intelligence gathering
- Anti and Counter surveillance for additional protection

Protective Services for Conferences and Events

Taking Care of You So You Can Do Business

We deploy anti and counter surveillance techniques to ensure that your conference/ meeting is safe and uninterrupted. We provide foot and mobile deployments to cover arrivals, routes, venues and we monitor vulnerabilities throughout the event. We support executive protection teams and we conduct discreet enquiries on any areas of concern.

Who we can assist:

- Director of security
- Security teams covering events
- Event planners on site or at headquarters

How we work

We will conduct advance work prior to an event or conference and we identify vulnerabilities at the venue and in the surrounding area. We provide assistance and contingency planning advice to the appropriate protective services to help them plan in advance of the event.

We will be present at the event, as requested, to either manage the security, or assist the internal security team as required. We identify threats to the event and dynamically risk assess the dangers in line with the security protocol.

We liaise with the director of security throughout the event to ensure that our deployment opportunities are maximised and reflect the needs of the client.

Being Security Aware

Training

Mint Executive provides training in a range of covert disciplines and we use the same experienced operatives, who deploy these tactics operationally, to deliver the training. We have combined years of our knowledge and experience to deliver training that is relevant, real and dynamic.

Who we can assist

We specialise in awareness training for key staff in the organisation and these include:

- Executives
- Security staff
- Drivers
- University exchange programmes
- Families (relocating or travelling)

Qualifications of Surveillance Team

Our trainers have worked at the highest levels of covert policing and their experience is invaluable. They will share their knowledge and skills to improve the way your organisation deals with the security threat you face.

How we work

Our courses are tailored to the client's needs, both in terms of content, method of delivery (written or in person) and location.

Tools used in the person-to-person training include the following:

- Video/Image examples of real situations
- Role playing scenarios
- Exercises
- Assessment

Course content includes the following topics:

- Personal safety
